I wholeheartedly believe in donating the land to the state tribe piscataway. They would like to restore and persevere the provided land. With the land they can perform ceremony, events and powwow's. They can also forage the land like they did thousands of years ago. Wild rice, pawpaw, black walnuts and more would be vital to the Piscataway tribe. With these resources they can pass down this knowledge to the next generation's to come and so on. I am part of the pascua yaqui tribe of AZ and we preserve our lands and environment so we can show and teach others how important our land is and how we still survive on our land. Land for a tribe means so much more than that. I know the Piscataway tribe will hold this land as its their own home. Thank you for your time and consideration on this decision.
